1. Introduction

1.1 Executive Summary

The End Of The War Coin (TEOTW) is an innovative cryptocurrency project designed to promote peace and support anti-war initiatives worldwide. TEOTW represents a new approach to cryptocurrency – one driven by values and focused on creating long-term social impact.

1.2 Problem Statement

Wars and conflicts are a leading cause of suffering, displacement, and the destruction of societies and natural resources. Despite the efforts of many humanitarian organizations, they often face limited funding and lack of continuous financial support. The End Of The War Coin aims to address this challenge by offering a decentralized, transparent way to raise funds and mobilize resources for peace initiatives and humanitarian aid.
